Donations & bequests

A future recovered
for people facing
mental health challenges

Make a donation

By leaving a gift or making a donation of any size to Richmond Fellowship Queensland (RFQ) you can be confident your contribution will have a direct impact on the recovery of people facing mental health challenges.

While RFQ receives funding from government to deliver an agreed range of services, it is the support from the community, business partners and philanthropists that enable us to deliver innovative services and programs and respond to the mental health needs of people and their families.

TO MAKE A DONATION

- Call us on (07) 3363 2555
- Send a cheque payable to -
Richmond Fellowship Queensland

We have been a respected leader in the provision of professional recovery-oriented psychosocial services throughout Queensland for over 45 years. We also deliver programs nationally through our telehealth services. We combine the inspirational vision and values of our founders with progressive thinking, advanced research and evidence-based practice.

Leave a gift in your will Help recover futures by leaving a gift to RFQ.

If you are considering making a bequest to RFQ, please contact us. You can specify what you want your bequest to be used for or we can discuss innovative program options with you.

We suggest you consult your solicitor, trustee company or the Public Trustee about how to include RFQ in your will.

If you would like to speak to someone in confidence, you can contact the CEO by calling (07) 3363 2555.

HOW WILL MY GIFT HELP?

Your gift will help support people's recovery needs,
service innovation and mental health research.
